

~~Party Leader~~ Party Leader

Pres. Bush Campaigns For California Republicans

Schwarzenegger, Pres. Don't Meet Up

 By Nannette Miranda

Oct. 3 - KGO - The President is on a California campaign fundraising swing and his visit is expected to take in well over $2 million dollars - but you won't see him near Gov. Schwarzenegger.

Even as President Bush heads to the Governor's neck of the woods in Los Angeles, you won't see the two leaders together. The President has his own problems: low poll numbers, Iraq, White House contacts with a disgraced lobbyist and the e-mail scandal involving Mark Foley.

His first stop on Tuesday was Stockton to give the Republican incumbent a boost.

President Bush: "Richard Pombo brings common sense to the big debates of our time."

Then he headed north to El Dorado Hills, where that stop was worth $600,000 dollars, to plead the case that Congressman John Doolittle and the GOP will keep Americans safe.

President Bush: "The biggest issue of this campaign and the biggest issue confronting the federal government is this: the security of you."

Noticeably absent was fellow Republican Governor Schwarzenegger...

Source:
<http://abclocal.go.com/kgo/story?section=politics&id=4625576&ft=print>

Bush Campaigns for Md. Senate Candidate

Wednesday, November 30, 2005

By Kaukab Jhumra Smith and Chris Landers

FOX NEWS

BALTIMORE —

President Bush on Wednesday called Lt. Gov. Michael Steele a decent and honorable man who would stand firm in the fight against terror and who would "help heal racial wounds" in Maryland if he won next year's race for the U.S. Senate.

The president spoke at a $125-a-head Steele fund-raiser at midday, swooping down to Baltimore's M&T Bank Stadium in a detail of helicopters after delivering a morning speech on terrorism at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis.

"As Maryland builds a bridge, you might as well make it a Steele bridge," Bush said...

Bush's Fundraising Dinner Raises $15.4M

By BEN FELLER
The Associated Press
Wednesday, June 13, 2007; 6:38 PM

WASHINGTON -- President Bush says polls don't matter to him, but his slumping popularity appears to be influencing fellow Republicans in a way that hurts money.

Bush's yearly fundraising dinner for Republican congressional candidates on Wednesday generated $15.4 million — no small amount, but almost half as much as the $27 million the event brought in last year. Bush raised $23 million at the same dinners in 2005 and 2004.

Source: washingtonpost.com

Bush dwarfs Democrats in fund raising

Friday, February 20, 2004 Posted: 3:07 PM EST (2007 GMT)

WASHINGTON (CNN) -- The re-election campaign of President Bush and Vice President Dick Cheney raised $12.8 million in January, far outpacing the amount raised by the top two Democratic presidential candidates, according to numbers released by campaign staffs.

Friday was the deadline for candidates' monthly fund-raising reports to the Federal Election Commission.

The Bush-Cheney '04 election campaign has raised $143.5 million since it began last May, said campaign press secretary Scott Stanzel.

Democratic front-runner Sen. John Kerry of Massachusetts raised $7 million from January 1 through February 13...

PARTY LEADER
~~Chief Political Executive~~

President Bush
Jim Talent
Fundraiser
Ritz Carlton Hotel
April 28, 2006
St. Louis, MO

Oct. 4: President Bush, left, is introduced by Rep. Rick Renzi of Arizona, before speaking at a Republican fundraiser in Scottsdale, Ariz.

President Bush speaks at a Republican fundraiser in Birmingham, Ala., for Alabama Gov. Bob Riley, right. Bush is slated to make several campaign stops this month on behalf of GOP candidates across the USA.

Sources:

www.foxnews.com/story/0,2933,217823,00.html

www.logicsound.com/clients_Past.cfm

http://www.usatoday.com/news/washington/2006-10-01-bush-campaign_x.htm